PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Note: This request was originally noticed as Variance (VAR-33768), but, due to material changes in the project, was renoticed for the 06/11/09 Planning Commission meeting as Variance (VAR-34538).

A two-story, 7,180 square-foot commercial development is proposed on an undeveloped parcel located approximately 500 feet north of Washington Avenue. Due to the scope of the project, it is unable to meet the minimum development standards of Title 19, resulting in this request for a Variance to allow a 15-foot front yard setback where 20 feet is required, a 73-foot setback where Residential Adjacency standards require 84 feet, and to allow a trash enclosure to be located 10 feet from a residentially zoned property where residential adjacency requires 50 feet. Staff is recommending denial of this request as the applicant has not provided compelling evidence of a unique or extraordinary circumstance, and has created a self-imposed hardship by proposing to overbuild the site. Alternative design or a reduction in the scope of the project would bring the development into compliance with Title 19 standards.

ANALYSIS

The proposed project is a two-story, 7,180 square-foot commercial building on a 0.58 acre parcel that does not conform to the minimum Title 19.08 Development Standards for front yard setback area and Residential Adjacency standards. The proposed structure would be setback only 15 feet from the front property line along Martin L. King Boulevard, where 20 feet is required. As the structure is proposed at two-stories and 28 feet in height, it would not meet the minimum 3:1 Proximity Slope from a protected residential property to the east as required by the Residential Adjacency standards. Finally, the trash enclosure has been located in the southeast corner of the site, approximately 10 feet from the protected residential property where Residential Adjacency standards require that such enclosure be located at least 50 feet away from the protected property. Residential Adjacency standards have been adopted to protect residentially zoned properties from the negative impacts that adjacent commercial development may have on them. The standards are intended to provide buffers in order to minimize these impacts so that commercial developments that occur in proximity to residential uses are compatible and can be operated in a harmonious manner with the residential uses. Staff is recommending denial of this request as it would effectively eliminate the additional buffering areas that Residential Adjacency standards are meant to provide, and the applicant has created a self-imposed hardship by proposing to overbuild the site.

FINDINGS

In accordance with the provisions of Title 19.18.070(B), Planning Commission and City Council, in considering the merits of a Variance request, shall not grant a Variance in order to:

1. Permit a use in a zoning district in which the use is not allowed;
2. Vary any minimum spacing requirement between uses;
3. Relieve a hardship which is solely personal, self-created or financial in nature.”

VAR-34538 - Staff Report Page Five
June 11, 2009 - Planning Commission Meeting

Additionally, Title 19.18.070L states:

“Where by reason of exceptional narrowness, shallowness, or shape of a specific piece of property at the time of enactment of the regulation, or by reason of exceptional topographic conditions or other extraordinary and exceptional situation or condition of the piece of property, the strict application of any zoning regulation would result in peculiar and exceptional practical difficulties to, or exceptional and undue hardships upon, the owner of the property, a variance from that strict application may be granted so as to relieve the difficulties or hardship, if the relief may be granted without substantial detriment to the public good, without substantial impairment of affected natural resources and without substantially impairing the intent and purpose of any ordinance or resolution.”

No evidence of a unique or extraordinary circumstance has been presented, in that the applicant has created a self-imposed hardship by proposing to overbuild the site. Alternative site design, coupled with a reduction in the scope of the proposed development, would allow conformance to the Title 19 requirements. In view of the absence of any hardships imposed by the site's physical characteristics, it is concluded that the applicant's hardship is preferential in nature, and it is thereby outside the realm of NRS Chapter 278 for granting of Variances.
